The U.S. Air Force Combat Command F-22 Raptor Demonstration Team just announced that it will join the all-star lineup of aviation superstars at Wings Over the Golden Isles Air Show, scheduled for March 24-26, 2017 at Brunswick Golden Isles Airport (BQK).

The USAF Air Combat Command's F-22 Raptor Demo Team showcases America's most lethal jet aircraft, the $140 million Lockheed Martin F-22. The demo team will kick off the weekend's flying activities during Friday evening's twilight air show continuing with daylight routines on Saturday and Sunday. The Raptor Team is known for precision aerial maneuvers demonstrating the aircraft's unique capabilities as an operational fifth-generation fighter aircraft.

The 10-member F-22 Demo Team, commanded by Major Daniel "Rock" Dickinson, represents Air Combat Command, the U.S. Air Force, the Department of Defense and the United States of America to more than 10 million spectators at more than 20 air shows around the world each year.

The Raptor Demonstration Team joins the U. S. Navy Blue Angels, the Aeroshell Demonstration Team and a group of the nation's most celebrated aerobatic champions at Wings Over the Golden Isles. In addition to the air show performers, Southern rock favorite, .38 Special, will appear in a live Friday evening concert. The concert will take place immediately following the Friday evening twilight air show.
